150 CANADA EXPRESS

Canada truly is a land of immigrants and always was been, even before its formation 150 years ago. My ancestral past is a good example of this and it also has an interesting twist with the Catho-lic Church. My paternal grandfather, John Louis Benson, was born in Rouen France. However at age 20 and in the year 1920, he left the family business that had been destroyed by the First World War, to start a new life in Canada. By contrast my mother’s (Eva Arbour) first ancestor arrived in 1665. Where at the age of 19, Michel Arbour made the arduous trek across the Atlantic Ocean from Normandy France to New France. It was a grand event when he and nine other men arrived in Quebec City. Now comes the catholic part, according to church records. On November 11, 1665 in Notre Dame Cathed-ral, Monsignor de Laval held a confirmation ceremony to welcome the 10 newcomers. As we see more push back to immigrants in Europe and south of the bor-der, it’s important to look back at our own personal history. We can be glad we live in this wonderful country, but also proud of how Canada is perceived on the world stage. Submitted by John Benson a parishioner at St. Ann’s

STRONG CATHOLIC FAMILIES
DIOCESE OF ST. CATHARINES

RAISING FAITH FILLED KIDS—ONE WORD AT A TIME
COMFORT

A youngster makes his daily call to his mom after a difficult day in middle school. Mom asks what’s wrong, and he mumbles “nothing”. She makes a mental note to check on him at bedtime and stops on the way home from work to buy the ingredients to make his favorite meal. “Comfort my people”, says the Lord. And she does.

A dad notices that his daughter is sad and sitting alone. Her friends left for the mall without her. He asks her to help him with a repair project. On the way to the hardware store, they stop for doughnuts, and he tells her about the day she was baptised and how every family member held her and blessed her tiny forehead. “Comfort me people” says the Lord. And he does. Our children need our presence. Notice and respond.

EMBRACE THE SPIRIT

Why would anyone become Catholic?

When people ask me why anyone would become Catholic, I say there are two sides to me that want to answer—one is the old atheist side that has a very simple answer that just says because it's true. There is another side of me, a fun loving side, that says because being Catholic is the most full experience of the human life.

Watch the video on formed.org CONVINCED under the category "men and women of faith" Jennifer Fulwider radio host (atheist who became Catholic)
