THIS MONTH WE CELEBRATE THANKSGIVING

Genuine gratitude is an interior movement and leads me to make an offering of myself in return. St. Thomas Aquinas suggests that “the one who receives a favour gratefully, has already begun to pay it back...that we are grateful should be shown in outpourings of the heart.” on the first two Sundays of this month, we meet grateful tax collectors and prostitutes and ungrateful tenants. The tax collectors and prostitutes receive Jesus’ message as a promise of new life; the tenants in the parable of the vineyard are trying to seize the gift of themselves, shutting out the giver. In the parable of the wedding banquet, those who were gathered in from the main street, good and bad, were called to enjoy the feast with thanksgiving, as an unexpected gift; by not wearing a wedding garment, the guest in the parable Is failing to express that gratitude. He is, in effect, choking off the natural movement of thanksgiving in himself. The gospel of Oct 22 is, in this light, absolutely pivotal: “Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” Jesus is telling those trying to entrap him: “we owe God everything; show your gratitude to your true benefactor, and respond to others in light of this primary gratitude. “ or as our final gospel text this month reminds us: love God with all you are and all you have, expressing your gratitude in self-giving love for your neighbour. - Living with Christ periodical Oct page 1

WISHING ALL THE PARISHIONERS HAPPY THANKSGIVING

150 CANADA EXPRESS

Submitted by Jayne Dennis a parishioner at St. Ann’s Church

On July 1st you turned 150 years old. God Bless Your Land.
Canada is a beautiful country. We are a country of diversity of its people, to diversity in our landscape.
We have beauty in our small fishing villages on the east coast—the flat vast prairies, and the beautiful mountains in our west and much more.
I am proud to be Canadian, a country that honours life, and free healthcare. We celebrate multiculturalism, where diversity is not seen as a source of tension, but one of strength.
I am proud that I am encouraged to have an open mind towards others, so as a nation, Canada can be seen in a positive light.
I am proud of live in a place of politeness, where “please” and “thank you” and “I’m sorry” are part of my daily vocabulary and ending every sentence with “eh”!!!
I am proud of the rockies, our beautiful lakes, hundreds of beautiful forests and of course the maple tree, that gives us our delicious maple syrup.
This is Canada and I’m truly proud to be Canadian.

STRONG CATHOLIC FAMILIES DIOCESE OF ST. CATHARINES

RAISING FAITH FILLED KIDS—ONE WORD AT A TIME GATHER

This is the time of year when families begin to gather. Thanksgiving is coming, followed by all the many celebrations of Christmas and New Year. Here are a few tips on how best to gather with your extended family: Be a little more welcoming, a little more understanding, be a little more forgiving and a lot more compassionate. Ask questions about what others care about and then listen more than you talk. Tell the guests at least one reason you are grateful they are in your life. Before you eat, reflect and pray together. Families are often on their best behaviour when guests are present. So remember what Jesus said, “where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.” Honor your guests as you would Jesus. —Tom McGrath

EMBRACE THE SPIRIT
Change the World in 60 seconds
 Greatest crisis today is absence of God. I think it is so important to understand as practicing Catholics our obligation to evangelize. We must answer this call even if it is in simple and small ways.
Tom Peterson was an award-winning advertising executive, but luke-warm in his faith. Then, in 1997, he attended a Catholic men's retreat. While praying before the Blessed Sacrament, he experienced a profound spiritual transformation and a clear vocational calling. God was inviting him to use his talents in television media for a greater good...to evangelize the world. Dear parishioners take the time and enjoy the Audio Change the World in 60 seconds in this motivating presentation. Tom shares how just 60 seconds can truly change the world, often one life at a time.

THANKSGIVING PRAYER FOR THE FAMILY
 Lord God, I give you all the members of our family. You know them all so well and love them all.
 I ask that you would cover us with a rainbow of hope. Hope that draws us together to work out our differences. Hope that helps us to celebrate together and care for one another. Hope that rides like a banner in our lives and watches over us wherever we go. Hope that overcomes adversity and gathers strength to overcome. Hope that guides us and gives us vision for our future alone and together. Hope filled with love. Hope that fuels faith. Hope that breathes peace. May our family live in you Underneath your promises. Amen.
